

BUT TAKE HEART sermon notes John 16:28-33 6-14-20

<sup>28</sup> “I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup> His disciples said, “Ah, now You are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech! <sup>30</sup> Now we know that You know all things and do not need anyone to question You; this is why we believe that You came from God.” <sup>31</sup> Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe? <sup>32</sup> Behold, the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with Me. <sup>33</sup> I have said these things to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world.”

Draw a heart with peace in it

What does speaking plainly mean?
What does the hour is now coming mean?
When did the disciples leave Jesus alone?
Why are Christians never alone? Why is Jesus never alone?
Why can you have a heart filled with peace?
When did Jesus overcome the world?
Does Jesus desire to change your heart? How?

Jesus said, "Take heart. I have overcome the world." John 16:33

Color the world blue and green for the water and the land.
Color the cross of Jesus yellow.

In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart,
I have overcome the world. John 16:33
